street found him in iail vesterday morning. James was arrested last Wednesday morning on the charge of breaking into a bread box in front of James Hayes's grocery store, No. 25 South Tenth street. Policemen Fahey and Kramer saw three boys break into the box and steal the bread. The officers gave chase and arrested James. The officers gave chase and arrested James. The other boys got away.

A trarrant was issued against him, charging petit larceny, and he was lodged in jail. He ran away from home a few drys before, and he says his hunger drove him to steal the bread. He lay in jail a week, afraid to let his relatives know anything about the case. Finally, on Tuesday, he decided to send them word. He told Deputy Sheriff Edward Noonan, whom he chanced to see in the jail one day, to tell Mrs. Woodruff. She hurried to the Four Courts to see her boy, who said he ran away because he was afraid of a whipping from his father.

Mrs. Woodruff forgave her son and at once set about to get him out. She hopes to find a bondsman to-day.

Gates's Manipulation Resembles a Corner and Shorts Are Being Squeezed.

TWENTY-NINE DAYS TO RUN.

Conditions May Change Materially -George H. Phillips Believes That the Plungers Will Strike a Snag.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, July 2.-The gigantic deal in the Chicago grain market in July corn that is being manipulated by John W. Gates and the Stock Exchange house of Harris, Gates & Co. is the one factor of prenounced interest in Wail street. This deal has delevoped the characteristics of a corner, and the "shorts" are being badly squeezed. Already the paper profits of the Chicago coterie are said to aggregate $3,000,000 or more, but the deal has twenty-nine days to run, and in that length of time conditions may change. John W. Gates, who is in the city, was not at his office in Wall street to-day, but was reported as managing operations from the Waldorf-Astoria. In his absence Mr. Harris, senior partner of the fir mot Harris, Gates & Co., would not discuss the deal in detail. He said that the entire operation was being conducted from Chicago. He also admitted that the firm took 2,500,000 bushels of July corn yesterday. He declined to even estimate the big profits of the Well-posted grain men say that it is evi-dently not the intention of the Gates people to run a corner, because they would not, in that event, let the matter become known on the first day of the contract month. Their plan, it was said, was to run up the prices and force the commission men who deal with the farmers direct to let go their contracts at rates that in many instances would force them to the wall.

George H. Phillips, the Chicago operator whose "corner in corn" was a national topwhose "corner in corn" was a national topic of recent days, who is now operating on the New York exchange, said to-day:

"While the supply of contract corn is short, there are mailons of bushels of corn in the country, Harris, Gates & Co. are long about 15,000,000 bushels of July. If they stay long the 5,000,000 bushels of option corn which can't be delivered to them may show a profit over the amount required to handle the 10,000,000 bushels of cash corn, but I am of the opinion that it will not.

"Where the ruin comes in manipulating the grain market is when the commission mendoing a legitimate business, buying from the tarmers direct.

"Such a proceeding spells ruin for them because they can't put up the big margins required, they can't make good their deliveries and though innocently short they are squeezed to the wall."

BISHOP'S ACCUSER IS HEARD. Board Fails to Say Whether Trial Will Be Held.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 2.-The examination tock two skirts, and now she is a prisoner at the Four Courts on the charge of larceny. The girl says she was driven from home by her father, and went to board at the house of Mrs. Susan Krause. of No. 1256 South Seventh street.

A week ago she says another girl, who was employed at the house, ransacked a trunk belonging to Mrs. Krause, in the landlady's absence. Several dresses and a lot of other ciothing were taken out, Susie Wilson says the other girl dared her to take some of the things, and just to be "game" she took two skirts, which she intended to return.

After taking the skirts the Wilson girl the Central Pennsylvania diocese, Protestant Episcopai Church, by the Reverend Doctor Ingram N. W. Irvine of Philadelphia, was conducted in executive session to-day by the Board of Inquiry recently appointed by Bishop Dudley of Kentucky.

After hearing the testimony of Doctor Irvine, whom the accused Bishop unfrocked while serving as rector of St. John's Parish, Huntingdon, Pa., and other witnesses, the board adjourned without making public its verdict.

Bishop Taibot was not present at the investigation, which was held to determine whether there was sufficient evidence for holding the Bishop for trial, which, according to the Episcopal canons, would be before a committee of Bishops. the Central Pennsylvania diocese, Protest-tended to return.

After taking the skirts the Wilson girl went to live at No. 94 Chouteau avenue, where she was arrested yesterday. She was then wearing one of the skirts. A warrant charging petit larceny has been issued against her.

Susle Wilson disappeared from home three years ago For six months the police searched for her, when she finally was found in a house at Roodhouse. Ill. The woman who took her to Roodhouse was sent to the Penitentiary. MRS. HILL KNEW CALLIE GRACE. Forest Park Suicide Formerly Worked for Her.

Mrs. Fern Hill of No. 1376 Lucretia avenue, called at the Coroner's office yesterday in response to a summons to testify in connection with the suicide of Callie Grace, who was found dying in Forest Park on Monday night of last week. She said the girl worked for her a week, commencing February 20, but at the end of that time she let the girl go. While she was at the house the girl went under the name of Callie Grace, and said she came from Columbia, Mo.

When she left, Mrs. Hill said, she missed four photographs. She identified those found in the girl's vallee as those taken represented in the press that he was to receive a large increase of revenue by reason of a recent ruling of the Supreme Court which allows him fees which, heretofore, have never been claimed by any Sheriff.

Dickmann's personal income is limited to $10,000 a year by law, and all above that amount which he may receive, after paying the expenses of the office, must be paid into the city treasury. It has hever been the city's good fortune to have any funds turned back into the treasury by a Sheriff.

All of this was explained fully in The Republic in the account of the Supreme Court's decision. When she left, Mrs. Hill said, she missed four photographs. She identified those found in the girl's value as those taken from the house. Why the girl took them she says she cannot imagine.

William Emerson, a boarder, called at the Coroner's office Tuesday, but by some mistake his address was set down as No. 1755 Lucretia avenue, and a deputy sent out to her house had some difficulty in finding him.

Cut, Tennessee and Washington.

Washington, July 2.—The Navy Department has its plans practically complete for the four big warships just authorized by the new naval law and to bear the names of Louisiana. Connecticut, Tennessee and Washington. The distinctive features of the new ships are the strength and the arrangement of their batteries and a creater thickness in armor. The battleships are to have a dispincement of 16,000 tons, and will be built for a speed of eighteen knots.

Their batteries will consist of four 12-inch guns, eight 8-inch guns, twelve 7-inch and twenty 3-inch guns, and a large number of smaller weapons scattered over the ship.

The armored cruisers are to have a displacement of 14,200 tons, and a speed of twenty-two knots. Their batteries will consist of four 10-inch guns, sixteen 6-inch and twenty-two shoots. Their batteries will consist of four 10-inch guns, sixteen 6-inch and twenty-two 3-inch guns and a large number of smaller ones.

R. P. Thompson, Deputy Excise Commissioner, announces that all unlicensed salouns will be closed to-morrow, as old licenses expire July 3. If licenses are not procured before their expiration, or if guarantees are not given places operating without licenses will be closed by the police.

More saloons than ever will be conducted in St. Louis after the Fourth of July, Mr. Thompson says. So far about 1,800 licenses, have been issued. This is 400 less than the number of salouns now in business. However, Mr. Thompson says the record will be broken, as there will be more than 2,200, though he cannot yet tell the exact increase.

DID NOT KNOW SHE HAD A SISTER.

After Twenty-Five Years, Mrs. W. H. Agnew Began Search for Missing Relative.

After twenty-five years Mrs. W. H. Agiew of No. 313 Franklin avenue discovered that she had a sister, and now she is trying to locate her.

The missing sister's name is-or was-Laura Miche. She was adopted by a fam-2 years old. Mrs. Agnew, whose maiden name was Ella Miche, was only 1 year old at the time.

The mother of the two children lost her mind when Laura was 3 years old, and into the charges of conduct unbecoming a dled at the County Farm at Belleville, Ill. Bishop, preferred against Bishop Taibot of Laura was adopted by one family, and Ella by another. Both were at that time too young to know they were staters. Their parents had lived in a house boat at the foot of Tyler street, and the father was well known among the residents of that vicinity. where he was wont to go daily gathering

> After were taken in charge by neighbors, and the father left the neighborhood. He has not been seen there since. Ella grew to woman-hood and married without the knowledge hat she had a sister. A few days ago while rummaging through some old belong-ings, she came across a paper containing the record of her sister's birth. She immediately began making inquiry in North St. Louis in the hope of locating her long-lost sister, and falling in this she caused an "ad" to be inserted in The Republic, William Caspari, a shoemaker, living at No. 800 Madison street, says he remembers the Miehe family and believes Laura was adopted by a family living near Thirteenth and Clinton streets.

In the opposite pocket the $1,500 was untouched.

After leaving the bank Mr. Hewitt visited the Globe. Lincoln Trust and Emilie buildings before returning to his office where the lors was discovered. The elevator in each of the office buildings was crowded, and he thinks it possible that in the heat, with his coat flaring open, some one saw the currency and robbed him in the crowd. He also thinks that perhaps the money fell out in some peculiar way, and for that reason he has inserted an advertisement in The Republic, believing that if by any chance the money was found by an honest man this is the best way to recover it.
